

FESTIVAL OF NATURE 2019

BioBlitz COMMUNICATE

THE NATURAL HISTORY CONSORTIUM – www.bnhc.org.uk - Engaging people with the natural world through collaborative action

To tender for this contract please submit a CV and 1 page covering letter in PDF format to Matt Postles at festival@bnhc.org.uk by midnight on April 22nd 2019. Please your files with your name e.g. 'Jane Smith CV' and 'Jane Smith Cover Letter'. We encourage any interested candidates to ring us with questions on 0117 925 3931!

City Nature Challenge and Festival of Nature Event Officer – Flexible / part time

CONTRACT LENGTH: 160 hours delivered between April 25, 2019 – June 12th, 2019.

CONTRACT VALUE: £2,000 (including VAT if applicable) as a freelance contractor.

HOURS/WORKING DAYS: The role is flexible, and a pattern of working will be agreed at the start of the contract. The available candidate must be available to work the entirety of the City Nature Challenge (April 26th – 29th) and Festival of Nature (June 1st – 10th) periods. This will be based on approximately 20 hours over the City Nature Challenge period, and 100 hours over the Festival of Nature period. The remaining 40 hours will be spread out over the May 2019 period, flexible to fit around other work, volunteering or personal commitments but during NHC core hours (09:00 – 17:00). If you would like more detail about the contract schedule / working pattern, please don't hesitate to ring us on 0117 925 3931.

PLACE OF WORK: Outdoors and on-site for the City Nature Challenge and Festival of Nature periods (please contact us for more details). The remaining hours will be delivered in the Natural History Consortium offices at 48 Corn Street, Bristol, BS1 1HQ.

CONTRACT DELIVERY FOCUS: This role focuses on: (1) supporting delivery of the City Nature Challenge event programme (2) curating City Nature Challenge areas, displays and interactive activities within the Festival of Nature programme and (3) logistics, production and delivery of the Festival of Nature event programme, including the Festival of Nature virtual festival.

We are seeking a highly organised person with a passion for nature and wildlife, event delivery and production, live event curation and on-site management.

